Welcome to Selfcare

Sunday, January 2, 2005 14:

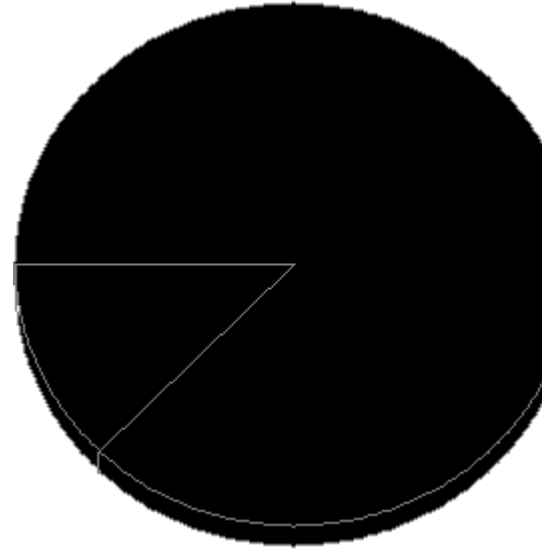

The computers we use to hold your PWP pages do not use Microsoft Windows. This means you may see some differences between the size of your files as reported by this page, and the size reported by your computer.

This is perfectly normal, and nothing to worry about.

Remaining Webspace

The pie chart on this page shows you at a glance how much of your PWP space you have filled, and how much free space you have available to add more files or WebPages.
